Provision of personal information to third parties

Without your permission the association only provides your personal information to third parties if this is necessary for execution of the agreement that the association has with you unless the association is legally obliged to provide your personal information to these third parties.

Access, correction and removal of personal information

You have the right to request access to your personal information (unless the association is not allowed to grant access on the grounds of the GDPR) to supplement, delete or protect your personal information. Upon such a request you need to identify yourself. If you want your personal information to be deleted the association will pass this on to all other parties that have received the personal information.

Security of personal information

The association initiates appropriate measures to secure your personal information from loss, unauthorized access, publication and unlawful processing. In this way we make sure only the necessary people have access to your personal information, that the access is shielded and that our security measures are frequently checked.

Minors

In the case you want to register as a minor you need to have explicit permission from your parent or guardian.

Modification of the privacy statement

The association occasionally modifies the privacy statement to keep this up to date. The most recent version of our privacy statement will be placed on the website. The association advises to consult the privacy statement regularly. With important changes the association will inform you by e-mail.
